Welcome to Patch Land

Thanks to the wrongdoings of the wicked sorcerer Yin-Yarn, a once-peaceful kingdom has come apart at the seams. Of course, now that Kirby's been transported to Patch Land, it's only a matter of time before the tattered remains are stitched back together. With the help of his new abilities—and a few new friends—it won't take Kirby long to set everything right.

Kirby's New Moves

The journey to Patch Land may have left Kirby without his usual powers, but he soon learns a few new tricks! Study Kirby's new abilities to overcome the challenges ahead.

Basic Abilities and Transformations

Walk

Press or to walk. Walking may be a little slow, but it offers the precision needed to safely navigate around dangerous enemies and environmental hazards.

Dash

Double-tap or to start a dash, then hold or to race across the ground. Use dash to speed through hazards or to quickly retreat from your enemies.

Jump

Press to jump over obstacles and enemy attacks.

Jump while dashing to gain some extra distance to land on those hard-to-reach platforms.

Parachute

Press and hold while in the air to parachute back to the ground. Use and while parachuting to steer your fall for a precision landing.

Beads

Collect beads to earn medals for each map. Look for bead trails that lead to new areas and hidden objects. Use collected beads to purchase items and complete special tasks in Quilty Square. Different types of beads add different amounts to your total bead count:

Small = 1 bead

Medium = 5 beads

Large = 10 beads

Star = 100 beads

Buttons

Buttons serve many essential functions during the game. Press ① and use the Yarn Whip to grab on to buttons as you progress through your adventure.

Use brass buttons to swing across wide gaps or up to high platforms. Brass buttons can be found mounted in the environment or attached to moving objects.

Blue buttons are used to permanently alter the environment. Use these to yank elements of the scenery across the background; for example, blue buttons allow you to close gaps that are otherwise too wide to cross or reveal objects hidden in the scenery.

Red buttons are used to temporarily alter the environment. Use these to yank elements of the scenery across the background. Because these elements will eventually spring back to their original positions, you can often use red buttons to reach platforms high above the ground.

Blocks

Blocks appear throughout Patch Land, both as obstacles and as valuable tools.

There are several types of blocks, each with their own properties:

Yarn Blocks are very fragile and can be unraveled or rolled up.

Cloth Blocks can be destroyed by thrown objects or by smashing them from above with the Weight ability.

Denim Blocks cannot be destroyed.

Bomb blocks can be detonated from a distance with thrown objects.

Star blocks are destroyed by a chain reaction when near a detonated bomb block.

Falling blocks can be rearranged to reveal a hidden path or object.

TIP

When you encounter falling blocks, pay close attention to any other blocks that are nearby. Remove key sections in a stack of blocks to drop falling blocks into the most useful arrangement. Falling blocks can be made of yarn, cloth, or denim and can behave like any block made from the same material.

Ladders

Approach a ladder and press  or  to climb up or down to new areas.

Doors

Press  to enter or exit a door. Use doors to slip behind the background fabric to find hidden beads or alternate paths. While moving behind the background fabric, keep an eye out for stitched platforms; you can use these only while behind the background.

Patches

Press ① and use the Yarn Whip to peel patches away from the background to reveal beads, treasures, doors, and more.

Patches come in different shapes and sizes. Whenever you see a patch, it's worth your time to investigate it!

Spools

Spools are used to open doors, lift platforms, and move heavy objects. Hold ① to wind a spool. Spools unwind after a short time but can be reused as many times as needed.

Zippers

Zippers can drastically change the layout of an area. Use the Yarn Whip to grab on to a zipper. Hold + or - to unfasten the zipper and reveal an entirely new arrangement of platforms.

CAUTION

Once you've unzipped a zipper, some beads and platforms may no longer be reachable. Always check the area just under a zipper to keep from missing out on valuable items.

Warp Seams

Warp Seams whisk you away to hidden areas across the level. Press + to enter an open Warp Seam.

The Bonus Bell

The Bonus Bell gives you a chance to win additional beads at the end of each level. Collect the Bonus Stars hidden within a level to complete the wheel around the Bonus Bell. Press ① to slow the spinning wheel with the Yarn Whip. If it stops at the right time, you gain extra beads!

Metamortex Transformations

As talented as Kirby is, sometimes his natural abilities just aren't enough to make it all the way through a dangerous area. When obstacles seem too great to overcome, be on the lookout for a Metamortex!

There are 10 varieties of Metamortex, and each one triggers a different transformation.

Tankbot

Controls

Move: \leftarrow , \rightarrow

Missile: ① (tilt the Wii Remote to aim)

Jump: ②

Bombard your enemies with an endless stream of explosive missiles! The Tankbot is less maneuverable than Kirby's normal form, but the extreme firepower is well worth it. Use missiles to clear out enemies and intercept incoming fire. The Tankbot's slow movement speed gives you plenty of time to clear a path, and its jet-assisted jump ensures the Tankbot can go over obstacles just as easily as it can go through them!

Saucer

Controls

Fly: \leftarrow , \rightarrow , \uparrow , \downarrow

Capture Beam: ②

Thunder Spark: change to ① (after it's charged)

Capture enemies and objects to power your systems, and clear the area with a powerful Thunder Spark! The Saucer requires a steady hand but can pass through enemy-infested areas with ease. Use the Capture Beam to collect three enemies or objects to charge the Thunder Spark attack. The Saucer can maneuver through some tight areas, but avoid touching any obstacles—it doesn't take much to send the Saucer spinning out of control!

Spin Boarder

Controls

Spin Attack: ①

Jump: ②

Race along the waves and soar over the heads of unsuspecting enemies! Once the Spin Boarder reaches top speed, there's no turning back.

Plow through your enemies with vicious Spin Attacks, or take to the air for some gravity-defying stunts. Use the Spin Attack to bounce off flying enemies, and search the skies for specially placed boosts. You can use Spin Attack as many times as you like before Kirby reaches the ground.

Digger

Controls

Move: ⬅, ➡, ⬆, ⬇

Dig: ①

Jump: ②

Dig passages deep underground to uncover the secret bounty hidden far below the surface of Patch Land! The Digger has limited offensive abilities but offers unmatched control over your environment. Create custom tunnels to take you exactly where you want to go, but plan your route carefully—the Digger can't replace any material once it's been cleared away. Carve passages to reach valuable objects; just watch out for falling blocks and underground enemies!

Off-Roader

Controls

Accelerate: ①

Jump: ②

Start your engines and race to the finish line! Hit the specially placed boosts to smash through obstacles, or use the Off-Roader's powerful suspension to reach new heights with massive jumps. Watch out for competing racers—a collision with one of your opponents can ruin your chances for a first-place finish!

Fire Engine

Controls

Move: +, +

Spray: ① (tilt the Wii Remote to aim)

Jump: ②

Head into volcanic caverns and use a blast of cold water to beat the heat! The Fire Engine can fight back pillars of flame and cool down rivers of flowing lava. Navigate hostile territory and extinguish enemy fire without breaking a sweat. The Fire Engine can maneuver through even the hottest spots, and its powerful spray can free any beads placed high above—just make sure you're in a position to catch them when they fall!

Train

Controls

Draw Track: Ⓐ (use the Wii Remote to aim)

U-Turn: Ⓑ

Slow and steady, this rail-rider will keep following its course wherever it leads! The Train will barrel ahead, so make sure to keep tracks under its wheels. This Train never stops, so use U-Turn to reverse direction if you roll right past important locations. Pick up train cars along the way, and grab pecially placed boosts to smash through obstacles. Draw new tracks to keep the Train on-target, but be quick—tracks won't stick around forever!

Dolphin

Controls

Swim:

Surge Attack: ①

Play: ②

Take to the seas with speed, grace, and a devastating Surge Attack! The Dolphin has no equal in underwater acrobatics. Use the Surge Attack to speed through enemies and fight against powerful currents. Of course, the Dolphin isn't all business—swim through hoops for small rewards, play with floating objects, and breach the water's surface to perform aerial stunts!

Rocket

Controls

Thrust:

Shoot: ① (tap for spread, or hold for concentrated fire)

Blast off into the great unknown to take the fight to invading armies! The Rocket is fast and maneuverable but can't stop its upward momentum. Use the Rocket's onboard weapons to quickly clear the area of swarming pests, or concentrate your fire on more dangerous enemies. The Rocket can always shoot its way out of tight spots—just remember to keep an eye on incoming fire!

Star Shooter

Controls

Move: , , ,

Star Shot:

Rule the skies with this formidable fighter! The Star Shooter can zip around an area but has to maintain its speed to stay in the air. The Star Shot has a long range but delivers much more damage when it moves in close to its target. Move quickly to collect beads from defeated enemies, and stay on your toes to dodge enemy attacks. Above all, make sure the path ahead is clear of obstacles—it can take time to deal with a well-placed cluster of Cloth Blocks!

NOTE

Metamortex transformations last until you pass through a Reel

Gate. These wooden dowels strip away the effects of a Metamortex and prevent you from reentering the area.

Cooperative Play

With Patch Land thrown into chaos, the challenges ahead can be daunting. Luckily, there's no need to face them alone!

Grab a second Wii Remote and a partner to take control of Kirby's new friend, Prince Fluff. This character can use all of the same basic abilities and transformations as Kirby and can be a great help in returning peace to Patch Land. Overcome tough situations with a little help from a friend, and Yin-Yarn won't stand a chance!

When you're outnumbered, an extra Yarn Whip can make all the difference!

Returning to Quilty Square

After completing the Patch Castle tutorial, Grass Land is stitched back into the kingdom. But that doesn't mean you're done with Quilty Square! Early on, most of Quilty Square is inaccessible, but new areas become available as you progress through the game.

Patch Plaza

Patch Plaza opens up after you complete the Patch Castle tutorial. This area contains six doors that you can use to review your progress in the game:

Cast: Learn a little more about the friends and enemies you've encountered in Patch Land.

Stuff: Examine the pieces of furniture you've collected.

Fabric: Compare swatches of fabric before you redecorate.

Medals: Keep tabs on the medals you've earned for each completed level.

Tunes: Flip through your music collection to hear your favorite songs.

Flicks: Replay any of the movies you've unlocked while playing through the game.

Patch Plaza keeps track of all of your achievements and lets you see how much is still ahead of you!

Kirby's Pad also becomes available after you complete the Patch Castle tutorial. Right away, you can start decorating this space with the treasures hidden in Patch Castle. Of course, you can redecorate Kirby's Pad at any time. If you find some furniture or fabric that catches your fancy, be sure to return to Kirby's Pad and put those items to good use!

Friends in Need

As other areas of Patch Land are restored, Dom Woole offers new tasks that bring you back to Quilty Court. Complete these tasks to earn rewards, open the furniture and fabric shops, and add new floors to Dom Woole's apartment building. Attract tenants to vacant apartments to make new friends and unlock special game modes. Before long, Quilty Court will grow into the bustling center of Patch Land.

TIP

Kirby, I'm at your place and I must say it looks very fun!

Although some events will automatically lead you to Quilty Court, keep an eye out for special notifications calling you back to Kirby's Pad. Friends may reward your progress with gifts or new challenges!

TIP

There's a Tankbot tutorial screen just past the Metamortex, but you may also find it helpful to press  and review specific controls at any time. While playing through a level, press  to see details for Kirby's current form.

Use your missiles to drop the barrier near the Tankbot tutorial screen and continue through Fountain Gardens.

Watch the skies when you see Bronto Burt; he may be flying in with reinforcements or transporting valuable beads. Don't let Bronto Burt get the drop on you!

Fire a steady stream of missiles to clear the area of enemies, and be sure to deal with bomb-dropping Bronto Burts in the same way before it's too late.

Carefully approach the Waddle Dee at the top of the hill. This little guy packs quite a punch with his handcrafted bombs. You'll need to get in close before you can hit the Waddle Dee, so blast the bombs out of the air as you make your way up the hill. Once you're in close, finish off the Waddle Dee with a well-placed missile.

Lava Landing

Keep your feet on solid ground in Lava Landing. Take on fiery Embas, explosive Bombers, and plenty of flowing lava as you make your way through these superheated caverns. A spray from the Fire Engine can cool off Yin-Yarn's troops, but no amount of water can stop this erupting volcano!

Calderons are bad news! Try to avoid these angry little guys, and be on the lookout for an eruption of fireballs.

Jump from the Magmotamus before it sinks into the lava, and peel the patch above to uncover a pull tab.

TIP

Always take a moment to look around before jumping onto a Magmotamus. Plan your next jump before climbing onto these beasts—they sink quickly when you step on them!

Yank the red button to clear the path ahead. Follow the pull tab to the special patch above the geyser. Peel away the patch to collect the Stone Lamp.

TIP

If you have a substantial lead on the lava, try collecting the Bonus Stars before moving on to the Treasure Patch. Jump up to the yarn above the patch to collect few extra beads, and clear the Yarn Block out of the way to continue up. This route does take a little extra time; however, sacrifice these beads for a speedy exit if the lava is getting too close!

Cool Cave

It's a nice break from the heat, but the Cool Cave is no place to relax. Tremors shake the ground as jagged crystals fall from above. Stealthy creatures can swoop down from the ceiling or spring up from the ground, and a hungry Slobba is looking for a meal. Use the Digger to dodge angry Flamers and tunnel your way back to the daylight!

Smash down onto the Cloth Block and follow the passage to the stash of beads.

Watch out for Snip-Snaps as you continue through the level. Snip-Snaps are right at home in narrow passages and will attack anything that passes by. Snip-Snaps move slowly but can stretch to almost any length. Keep moving to stay ahead of a Snip-Snap, and wait for it to head back to its hole.

Boss Battle: Hot Wings

Hot Wings is the volcano's fierce protector, and it has quite a few abilities at her disposal! Predict her fiery attacks, and be sure to keep an eye on the lava below. Hang on to the beads you collect to earn the Hourglass Patch, and open a path to Hot Land's bonus levels.

When Hot Wings lowers her head, she's sending in a flock of Embirds. This is your chance to fight back! Roll up one of the Embirds and throw it at Hot Wings. Collect the beads while she's stunned, but dash over to Hot Wings and yank the red button before she recovers. The first time Hot Wings uses this attack, she sends only two Embirds. After you successfully damage Hot wings, expect a flock of six Embirds during each of these attacks.

If the platforms shift position after Hot Wings flies offscreen, it means the lava is about to erupt through the floor. Jump onto any platform and stay put until the lava settles down.

After you damage Hot Wings, she retreats into the lava to reignite her wings. Watch the lava for signs of Hot Wings, and be ready to dash out of her path as you collect the last of the beads.

When Hot Wings spits out a row of fireballs, the platforms sink into the lava. Position yourself between the falling fireballs to come through unscathed. After you've damaged Hot Wings for the second time, she doubles the size of her fireball attacks. Dodge the first round of fireballs, then reposition yourself to dodge the second wave.

After her fireball attacks, Hot Wings flies offscreen. Find a platform near the center of the screen and watch for a glow that indicates her return. Use the platforms to avoid Hot Wings when she flies across the screen. Watch for another glow, and position yourself to dodge a second flyby.

Repeat the cycle of dodging attacks and damaging Hot Wings three times to defeat her. Each time you successfully stun her and yank the red button, you start a new cycle.

Head to the bottom of the ocean to face some of the most dangerous creatures around. The little jolt of a Jelly Jr. is nothing compared to the massive shock of an Amprey. Search for lost treasure in a sunken ship, and escape the jaws of the giant Danglerfish in Deep-Dive Deep!

Wait for the Ampreys to swim by, then follow them to collect the beads that trail behind them.

Watch yourself around the Ampreys that swim in deep water. These massive beasts deliver a jolt to anyone who wanders too close. Look for a hiding spot outside of the Amprey's path, and wait for it to pass by before swimming through the area.

Roll up a Blipper or a Sawgill, and throw it to stun the Danglerfish.

TIP

Roll up the spool to unravel the Danglerfish and swim over to the patch just past him. Peel away the patch and grab the Bonus Stars.

The Danglerfish uses its light to attract unsuspecting swimmers. When you swim too close, the Danglerfish creates a powerful current to suck you into its jaws. Swim against the current until the Danglerfish is exhausted, or throw an object to stun it from a distance.

Swim back up to the surface and Surge Attack to jump across the platform. Slide into the water to the right, and Surge Attack up to grab the Star Bead.

Boss Battle: Capamari

Capamari rules the oceans of Water Land, and this boss has no interest in a fair fight. Capamari covers his red button with a knit cap, so destroying this protective barrier is the first priority. Turn Capamari's attacks against him, and claim his beads to open the path to Water Land's bonus levels.

Capamari attacks with his swarming tentacles, so keep moving to avoid his powerful grip. Grab the spool dangling from the top of him, and keep moving to dodge the white tips of the tentacles as you unravel the cap. Release the spool, and roll up one of the tentacles whenever you're surrounded. Tentacles recover after a short time, so make sure to unravel the cap while the coast is clear.

The cap is divided into two separate sections. After you unravel the blue section of the cap, throw the spool at Capamari and collect his beads. Roll up one of the tentacles and throw it at Capamari for a second shower of beads, then unravel the rest of the cap to send Capamari into hiding.

After Capamari spits out his ink, he surrounds you with three spinning tentacles. When the tentacles stop spinning, they rush toward your current position. Roll up one of the tentacles before they stop spinning, then swim through the opening to dodge the attack.

When Capamari sends his Octopeas into the fight, swim over and roll one of them up. Wait for the rest of the critters to land in their attack positions, and swim into the gap as they corkscrew past.

Hang on to the Octopea, and watch the four octopus traps for Capamari to appear. When you spot Capamari, throw the Octopea to knock him out of the vase. Swim over and yank his red button to fling Capamari across the screen. Swim to the rocks below to grab the beads while Capamari recovers.

Capamari retreats into a octopus trap and prepares for a corkscrew attack. Stay near the screen's middle, and watch for movement from the octopus traps. The traps rotate to fire Capamari at different angles, so stay clear of possible paths. Collect the beads that follow Capamari out of the trap after each attack; any beads left in Capamari's path will be destroyed when he spins through them.

Capamari repeats the same series of attacks until you defeat him, so use the same tactics for each attack. Hit Capamari with another Octopea, and yank his red button one more time to finish him off.

it at King Dedede to stun him. Collect the beads and jump onto King Dedede when he falls to the ground. Smash down on him, and yank the red button to sever one of the strings.

TIP

King Dedede is vulnerable at the end of his slide attack, but wait for a chance to roll up a star. Successful throws reward extra beads, so always stun King Dedede before you yank one of his buttons!

When the Gordos appear at the screen's top, King Dedede jumps into the air for his slam attack. The Gordos drop when King Dedede lands, so position yourself in the gaps between them. Roll up one of the waves, and wait for King Dedede to slide toward you. Jump over the attack, and throw the wave to stun King Dedede when he slides to a stop. Smash down on him and yank the second red button.

After you yank away two of his buttons, King Dedede rotates through more powerful versions of his attacks. Avoid the extended attacks, and look for the same opportunities to stun King Dedede.

King Dedede adds a spin to his mallet attack. This attack is harder to dodge, and the impact creates only one star.

King Dedede's slam attacks gain one slam for each red button you yank away. Jump over the extra waves, and keep moving to dodge the falling Gordos.

Meta Knight's red blade is his most powerful weapon. This sword improves Meta Knight's homing wave attacks and adds a new whirlwind attack. When Meta Knight summons two whirlwinds to the room's center, dash away from him and stand near the wall. When Meta Knight follows up with one of his wave attacks, roll up a wave and wait for the whirlwinds to disappear.

Meta Knight adds a third small wave to his homing wave attack. Draw the three waves to one side of the room, then dash forward and dodge between them. Avoid Meta Knight's attacks, and wait for an opportunity to stun him. After Meta Knight completes a spin or dive attack, throw the wave at him. Yank the red button to destroy Meta Knight's sword, and collect his beads to move on to Space Land's bonus levels.

Hit the Tankbot Metamortex, and take back control of the Moon Base. Take on Bombers, Bronto Burts, and automatic turrets, then head out to blast your way through the meteor shower. The Moon Base may be well defended, but the Tankbot's missiles are up to the task!

When you reach the falling blocks, move back to the left and jump from the ledge. Follow the trail of beads and collect the Cosmic Bin.

Fire your missiles at the cannon above the orb. When the orb opens, fire into its exposed core. If the cannon is still active, move toward the core to dodge the cannonballs, and keep firing to destroy the barrier.

When Yin-Yarn begins his Soocher attack, stand in the window near the center of the fabric. Wait for the Soochers to stitch platforms across the screen, and jump over each Soocher as it passes by. Jump up along the stitching to reach the door in the screen's top-left corner.

For his next attack, Yin-Yarn summons Capamari. Roll up an Octopea, and wait for Capamari to show his face. Throw the Octopea at Capamari, and yank his red button.

When Yin-Yarn begins his second Soocher attack, stand below the door near the screen's top-right corner. Dodge the Soochers, and jump up along the stitching to reach the door above you.

When you land, Yin-Yarn summons four Uniclods and two Scarfies. Stay put, and roll up the Uniclod to the right. Throw the Uniclod straight up at Yin-Yarn, and yank his red button before the remaining Uniclods can attack.

When Yin-Yarn recovers, he unravels the ground into three separate platforms. Stand near the screen's center, and wait for the Scarfies to appear. Let the Scarfies get close, then jump over to one of the other platforms. Keep dodging the Scarfies until they vanish, or you can pound down on them. Wait for Yin-Yarn to summon a Chilly and two Giant Waddle Dees. Dodge the falling enemies, and roll up the Chilly. Throw the Chilly at Yin-Yarn, and yank his red button before his next round of Scarfies can attack.

Yin-Yarn may be finished, but his wicked knitting needles aren't! Use the Tankbot to fire a stream of missiles at Mega Yin-Yarn. Aim for Mega Yin-Yarn's tires to knock him off balance. Keep firing as his missiles fly harmlessly through the air.

When Mega Yin-Yarn knits a stream of small missiles, move to the left. Aim up and shoot his small missiles out of the air, then aim back down at Mega Yin-Yarn to continue your attack.

When Mega Yin-Yarn hops onto his knitting needles, keep shooting and move to the screen's far left side. Clear out any incoming missiles from Mega Yin-Yarn's spin attack. Keep shooting until you defeat him, and collect his beads to unlock Dream Land's bonus levels.

Bonus Level: Meta Melon Isle

Get away from it all at Meta Melon Isle. Travel through five distinct environments, and transform between the Off-Roader, Fire Engine, Dolphin, Train, and Spin Boarder. This place has something for everyone, and a Metamortex for every occasion!

Jump onto the springing platform, and bounce to the platform above you.

When you reach the platform's end, jump up to hit the boost, and grab the Bonus Stars to the right.

As the Fire Engine, spray down the surface of the lava, then take out the Embaconda to collect its beads. Continue across the lava before the surface melts.

Spray down the next pool of lava, and move to the Magmotamus. Spray the Star Bead at the cave's top, and jump up to grab it as it falls on the Magmotamus.

Spray down the last pool of lava, and put out the fiery geysers. Move onto the lava, and jump up to grab the Bonus Stars. Wait for the Embaconda to surface, and take it out to collect the Palm Chair.

As the Dolphin, swim between the Gordos to grab the Star Bead. Surge Attack through the Sawgills, and swim through the hoops for extra beads.

2 Fly up to the first large cannon, and shoot the cannonballs as they appear. Damage the cannon between its attacks to destroy it, and grab the Bonus Stars.

TIP

The small cannons mounted along Battleship Halberd are a great source of beads, and the large cannons contain even more valuable items. Fly in close to take advantage of the Star Shooter's spreading fire, and take out the cannons before they move offscreen.

3 Fly just above the barrel of the second large cannon, and hit it with your spread fire. Destroy the cannon to collect the Galaxia Stand.

4 Watch out for the giant cannon! The upper half of this weapon launches huge cannonballs, and the lower half fires a powerful beam attack. Shoot the cannonballs as they appear, and hit the upper section until the barrel rotates to the right. Fly in close to avoid the beam attack and to damage both sections of this weapon at the same time.

5 Approach the third large cannon from above. When the cannon fires, swoop under the cannonballs. Move in close, and take out the cannon before it can fire off another attack. Destroy the cannon to collect the Knight Helmet.

General Strategies

Avoid taking damage. It doesn't matter how many beads you collect if you can't hang on to them! Be careful around enemies and environmental hazards.

Attack Sneak Sacks from above. When you see a Sneak Sack, you'll probably need its beads to complete the challenge. Wait for a Sneak Sack to turn away from you, then run over and smash down on it before it escapes.

Make the most of switches. Collect any nearby beads before you hit a switch. Triggered beads often lead you deeper into the level, and they vanish after a short time. Make sure you're ready to move on before you reveal new beads.

General Strategies

Check for weapons near tightly grouped enemies. Whenever you see enemies standing in a line, try to use a rolled-up weapon to clear them all with a single throw.

Take advantage of homing throws. Enemies like UFOs and Buttonbees should always be rolled up and thrown. Let the homing projectiles hunt down distant targets while you continue to fight nearby enemies.

Plan ahead for Rolling Clods. You can't unravel or roll up a Rolling Clod; keep at least one other enemy available for a throw.

Race challenges. Complete each of Mara's challenges to receive a fabric reward.

General Strategies

Watch where you dash! When it comes to speed, the dash is your single most important tool, but dashing into obstacles will cost you valuable seconds.
